9. HR Division — Special Notes (Most Relevant for HRM Background)

Organizational Model:

- Dhaka Bank manages operations vertically from Head Office through 5 segments: Branch Banking, Business, Risk, Operation, Support (not a traditional decentralized branch-based model)

Recruitment Categories:

- Fresh Graduates — via Management Trainee Officer (MTO), Trainee Officer (TO), Trainee Cash Officer (TCO)
- Experienced Employees — separate selection process
- Written test typically covers general intelligence, knowledge, and numeracy

Entry-Level Compensation (indicative, may change):

- Trainee Officer: ~BDT 35,000/month allowance during 1-year training period
- Confirmed as Officer after successful evaluation, with a service guarantee (commonly 5 years incl. training)

HR Focus Areas:

- Talent Acquisition — competing for skills, employer branding, diversity recruitment
- Compensation & Benefits — provident fund, gratuity, superannuation fund, hospitalization benefits, soft loans (house building & provident fund loans)
- Employee Engagement — cultural events (Pohela Boishakh, Eid, Women's Day), Intra-Bank Cricket Tournament
- Training & Development — 2024: 5,191 participants, 42,237 total training hours; blended learning (classroom, external programs, e-learning)
- Key Account Manager for Female Employees — dedicated HR contact point for female colleagues' career development, harassment issues, or job-related concerns
- Code of Conduct & Equal Opportunity Policy — anti-harassment policies, workplace dignity standards
- Health & Safety — hospitalization benefits, fire safety drills, Board-approved emergency support

Why Choose Us (Employer Value Proposition, per Dhaka Bank):

- Excellent working environment
- Fast track career development
- Market-driven pay and benefits
- Continuous learning opportunities
- State-of-the-art technology

10. Interview Talking Points for HRM Candidates

- Connect HRM theory to banking: performance management, motivation theory, and employee engagement are directly used in Dhaka Bank's HR strategy (see engagement & training stats above)
- Mention the IUB–Dhaka Bank Chairman connection naturally if it fits the conversation (Chairman is IUB's Founder Trustee)
- Be ready to discuss recruitment process differences (Fresh Graduate vs Experienced Hire tracks)
- Know that HR compliance in banking also involves Bangladesh Bank HR-related regulatory requirements
- If asked about compensation trends, reference that the bank uses a 'market-driven' pay philosophy rather than quoting exact figures (which change over time)
